I always feel like Darynda Jones leaves readers with more questions than answers, and that's the case yet again with SIXTH GRAVE ON THE EDGE. Sixth Grave on the Edge opens shortly after the conclusion of the previous book, with heroine Charley Davidson back in her baby - her bright red Wrangler, Misery. At the conclusion of the previous book, Misery was nearly destroyed, and I completely love how Charley describes each and every symptom and repair as if Misery was a human.
